OKLAHOMA 31ST Annual RENAISSANCE Festival

Welcome, dear friends, travelers, dreamers, and revelers alike.

If you are reading this, then you have already done something rather extraordinary... You have chosen to step beyond the ordinary world and into ours. For that, I am deeply grateful. When I first walked these grounds, they were simply whispers of possibility carried on the sweeping wind. I could not have imagined that one day they would be filled with the thunder of hooves, the ring of steel, the scent of roasted feasts, and the unmistakable sound of joy echoing through every lane.

Of all the wonders this village holds, my favourite has never changed. It is not the buildings we have raised, nor the tournaments we host, nor even the stories we tell.

It is you. It is the light that dances in a child's eyes as they witness their first knight's duel. It is the unrestrained laughter shared between friends as it spills into the streets like music.

That is the true magic of Castleton.

You see, this village was never meant to be just a place you visit. It is something you become a part of. Every cheer, every performance, every story you carry with you, adds to the living tapestry we have built together over these many years. Seasons have come and gone, and still, each day I walk these paths, I find something new, because of you. So wander freely. Laugh loudly. Cheer boldly. Let yourself be swept up in the story. And know this: it is my greatest honour to welcome you home.

With gratitude and enduring wonder,

Steward Hiller

BOARS HEADE FEASTE

BOARS HEADE FEASTE NOVEMBER 21 7PM-9PM

Begin your holiday season with music, feasting and friends! Join us in a Holiday tradition dating back to the Middle Ages. A multi-course feast is presented by your favourite faces of Castleton while you enjoy the sounds of the season and traditional songs from musicians you know and love. Tickets are $59.95 + tax/per person.

Seating is limited and reserved. For more information visit OKCastle.com

The background of the poster is a night scene of a castle illuminated with colorful lights (red, blue, green, yellow). The castle is surrounded by trees and a path. The scene is framed by green, ornate, vine-like borders in the corners. The text is centered and features a mix of fonts: a large, stylized gothic font for 'Castle' and 'Christmas', and a smaller, simpler font for 'MUSKOGEE, OK'.

CASTLETON'S GOODBYE

MUSIC AND LYRICS BY JON RENEAU

Sing us a song, hello, hello
Sing us a song, hello
Midsummer greets us, with soft warming spring,
And brings our hearts to glow

Time to make change, hello, hello
Time to make change, hello.
For Autumn greets us with harvest crest moon,
And Summer tales grow old.

(Chorus) And so we meet, again early Spring time
Memories of so long ago,
Thanks to our God, for our loves and our lives.
Let the warmth of our love now show.

Take my hand, hello, hello
Take my hand, hello
My eyes are filled with thoughts of alone
And Winters biting Snow
(Chorus)

Kiss me once, hello, hello
Kiss me once, goodbye
Soon we will meet at Winters farewell,
And tear again my eye
(Chorus)

Hello my friends again say hello,
Has winter fared ye well?
Castleton calls, as our friends send their love
Hello my friends, hello
